Rules:

1. Students should plan to attend all sessions. Students will pay for all class sessions at the time of registration. There will be no refunds for missed classes. Please call or tell me well in advance when you will be absent.
2. We are building a team and students need to be present at rehearsals and concerts to build a strong team. Students must call at least a day in advance if they will be absent.
3. Students agree to work to fulfill all the class requirements, goals, practice their music, and do the homework assignments.
4. Come to class prepared with your music, notebook, pencil, and instrument.
5. Learn all assigned songs in the band repertoire list

Course Content:

This course will focus on developing song repertoire in a wide variety of styles including: jazz, Blues, Latin, funk, pop, etc. Students will build song repertoire through reading music, rehearsing as a band, listening and transcribing songs, and through exploring and expressing their inner vocabulary on their instruments. Weekly assignments will be given to promote learning new vocabulary, song repertoire, and developing improvisation skills Instruments provided at John's studio: music stands, drum set, bass amp, guitar amp, keyboard & amp, PA system, congas, bongos, and small percussion instruments, vibes, and marimba. Students must bring all other instruments and guitar patch cords.
