Course Content: Students will explore the expressive art of creating music using improvisation in small combo settings of 5-8 members. This course will focus on developing song repertoire in a wide variety of styles including: Jazz, Blues, Latin, Funk, etc. Students will build their skills in reading music, performance, communication, teaming, listening & transcribing songs, practical music theory, through exploring & expressing their inner vocabulary on their instruments. Weekly assignments will be given to promote learning new vocabulary, song repertoire, and developing improvisation skills.

Special Covid safety rules:

All students must show proof of vaccination for the Covid 19 virus.

To create a Covid safe learning environment, the AJW faculty and students will follow current CDC, ACA, & DHSS guidelines in place at the time of the camp.

Rules:

1. Students should plan to attend all sessions. Students will pay for all class sessions at the time of registration. There will be no refunds for missed classes. Please call Nick well in advance if and when you will be absent.
2. Students agree to work to fulfill all the class requirements, goals, practice their music, and do the homework assignments.
3. Come to class prepared with your music, notebook, pencil, and instrument.
4. Learn all assigned songs in the band repertoire list. I welcome your input regarding songs you want to learn.
